Midlands Net Zero Hub
Environment and Sustainability
PN-374

05/2023

The Midlands Net Zero Hub are part of Nottingham City Council (the Council), who are the data controllers for the personal data (or personal information) that we process about you for the Heat Training Grant, which is funded and administered by the UK government Department for Energy, Security and Net Zero (the Department). Your training provider also processes data about you as a student of their course.

When the Council process personal information relating to you, we will comply with data protection legislation and enable you to exercise your rights contained within the legislation, and will only process your data when it is necessary and where we have a lawful reason to do so. On this occasion, we will use the information provided by you for:

- the management and delivery of the Heat Training Grant scheme, including reporting to the Department
- evaluation, auditing, research, statistical and fraud prevention purposes
- inviting you to participate in research about your experiences with the project.

What personal information will the Council process?

The information that we collect about you to fulfil the purposes, objectives, or to deliver the services outlined above will relate to your: (this may include all, or some of the following, depending on the service).

- Your name, gender, region, training provider and confirmation your eligibility check was completed by the training provider
- Type of course, your start date, reference number and learner ID for awarding body (if applicable)
- Your age and opinions of your experience on our feedback form (if completed)

If you respond to the feedback form, the information we process about you may include the following 'special categories' of your personal data:

- Race or Ethnic origin
- Physical or mental health - (indication of disability only)

Lawful basis for processing

The basis under which we use your personal information for these purposes is that this is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest by the Council or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Council. This is a result of the powers or duties contained in the Climate Change Act 2008.

The condition under which we process the above special categories of personal data is that such use is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest; namely, equality of opportunity or treatment in accordance with Schedule 1 Part 2 Paragraph 8 of the Data Protection Act 2018.

Will my information be shared with other organisations or used for other purposes?

The Council will only share your personal information with other departments within the Council, and with other organisations when it is necessary to provide the services to you, and when we have a lawful reason to do so. The Council may also share your information when we are obliged to by law. In relation to this service, the Council may share your personal information with:

- The Department
- Your training provider with whom you are completing the course

The information may also be used for the purpose of any other function carried out by the Council. This may include sharing your information across the Council, or with external organisations. Information about these functions and the legal basis on which information is used for them can be found at <http://www.nottinghamcity.gov.uk/privacy-statement/> The information will only be used for another purpose where it is lawful to do so.

Do I have to provide the information?

You are not obliged by statute or contract to provide the information that is specified here. However, if we were not able to process your personal data we will not be able to assist the training provider with delivering your course.

How long will the Council retain the data for?

The information that you have provided will be kept for the duration of the project and the evaluation period. The Council publish an Information Asset Register (IAR), this will outline the retention periods for the personal data we process. You can find this IAR on our website <https://geoserver.nottinghamcity.gov.uk/information-asset-register/>
