Nottingham on Call are part of Nottingham City Council, who are the data controllers for the personal data (or personal information) that we process about you. When we process personal information relating to you, we will only do so when it is necessary and where we have a lawful reason to do so.

We will use the information provided by you for a number of reasons, depending on the service or reasons for interacting with you. This includes:

- Effective delivery of the Nottingham on Call Assistive Technology Service, including billing information and contacting nominated next of kin as necessary.

When we process your personal information, we will comply with data protection legislation and enable you to exercise your rights contained within the legislation.

What personal information will the Council process?

The information that we collect about you to fulfil the purposes, objectives, or to deliver the services outlined above will relate to your: (this may include all, or some of the following, depending on the service).

- Name
- Address
- Date of Birth
- Next of kin
- GP and medication details

- Formal carer information
- Known risks or issues

The information we process about you may include the following 'special categories of personal data':

- Race or Ethnic origin
- Religion
- Physical or mental health

Lawful basis for processing

The basis under which we use your personal information for these purposes is in order to provide an effective and safe service for you, and to be able to contact nominated next of kin and emergency services as needed based on the nature of alerts being raised.

The condition under which we process 'special categories of personal data' is that such use is in accordance with the provisions of the UK General Data Protection Regulation and the Data Protection Act 2018. This helps us to ensure that our service is being provided in a sensitive manner taking into account specific personal circumstances.

Will my information be shared with other organisations or used for other purposes?

The Council will only share your personal information with other departments within the Council, and with other organisations when it is necessary to provide the services to you, and when we have a lawful reason to do so. The Council may also share your information when we are obliged to by law.

In relation to this service, the Council may share your personal information with:

- Adult Social Care Department, but only where you are in receipt of a social care package or under-going a social care assessment, and to support with your care or assessment.

The information may also be used for the purpose of any other function carried out by the Council. This may include sharing your information across the Council, or with external organisations. Information about these functions and the legal basis on which information is used for them can be found at <http://www.nottinghamcity.gov.uk/privacy-statement/>

The information will only be used for another purpose where it is lawful to do so.

Do I have to provide the information?

You are not obliged by statute or contract to provide the information that is specified here. However, if we were not able to process your personal data then we will not be able to proceed in providing a Nottingham on Call Service to you.

How long will the Council retain the data for?

The information that you have provided will be kept for 7 years from the date your service with Nottingham on Call ends.

The Council publish an Information Asset Register (IAR), this will outline the retention periods for the personal data we process. You can find this IAR on our website <https://geoserver.nottinghamcity.gov.uk/information-asset-register/>
